THEME

The Journey of a Lifetime: India

In this 11th edition of the contest will have room for all the photographs that show cultural and emblematic places of the country and also all those magical and special corners that you have discovered during your travels through the different cities and towns, and that show the diversity that India offers.

The objective is to awaken the interest of new travellers so that when the situation allows it, they can travel again to the country where we carry out our projects.

India is a vast country that comprises a variety of territories ranging from the peaks of the Himalayas to the shores of the Indian Ocean. In addition, its great historical past, the fusion of its population and the diverse influencias of other cultures, have provided the country with many tourist places to visit.

India has monuments of the Moghul empire, majestic religious sanctuaries, edifices of the colonial era, constructions of the Islamic architecture and admirable natural landscapes that do not leave indifferent to anyone who visits the country.

Thus, the competition will include all those photographs that show this historical and cultural richness of the country. We want to transmit with your images that there are many charms and attractions that awaken the senses of travelers who come to India.

We are looking for images that, once we are back to normal and the trips to India can be reactivated, will encourage people to visit those corners of some village in the mountains of Rishikesh, or the sunsets in the backwaters of Kerala, or a beautiful sunrise in front of the Taj Mahal. They can be photographs of monuments, landscapes, outdoors or indoors that convey what may be the next "Journey of a lifetime".

In this edition, photographs that do not show images of people will be valued.

You can now start sending us those images that you have captured on your travels that are related to the theme proposed.
